

Toronto, Canada

tmaymusic.com

For booking, please contact:
riseup@tmaymusic.com

Biography

Northwestern Ontario raised, now Toronto based, Producer | Artist T MAY is the 2021 Ottawa Awards Faces Magazine Best Producer and 2022 Best Hip Hop Artist and Producer Nominee.

T MAY loves making every song empowering, moving, modern and unique, with a determination to inspire listeners to RISE UP. T MAY's music radiates a variety of hip-hop, trap, pop, electronic, reggaeton and house instrumentals. Inspiration from helping people and bringing positive energy to others, through mental, spiritual, physical and emotional health, is what drives his passion. All while creating new music, mentoring artists and building vibrations in the world.

Throughout the course of his musical career, T MAY has released the PURIFY ALBUM, STAY RISEN EP, the RISE UP ALBUM and 10 singles between 2017-2023, on music streaming platforms and has performed at large appearances including: the 2018 Rock the Mic Showcase in Manhattan New York City, headlined at the 2019 NCR Uncovered Art Canada festival and performed at the Carleton University's Dominion Chalmers for the 2020 Black History Celebrations in the Nations Capital, Ottawa Canada 🇨🇦

Notable Achievements

Performed at large appearances such as the 2018 Rock the Mic Showcase in NY City and Headlined at the 2019 NCR Uncovered Art Canada Festival.

T MAY developed and facilitated three music workshops for the Wabano Centre for Aboriginal Health Youth Day Camps in 2019, 2020 and 2021. The music workshops are a way for Indigenous youth to explore their music and talent through experiential learning. This included; song writing, music production, instrumentals, videography, and digital media.

Press

"Love the Rise Up Album! The songs share a positive empowering message of purpose and vision. I was going through a difficult time in life and the inspirational lyrics and beats brought spirits up through it. Thankful for the positive music" ~ IFMA Muay Thai Champion Ashley Nichols

"The music is very uplifting and inspiring. I am so grateful for the Rise Up Album! Thank you for creating such a masterpiece" ~ Anishinaabe/Ottawa Hoop Dancer, Makhena Rankin-Guérin

